The former connection with Mr. Rumsfeld to the American government is not surprising. He was born in 1932, about 20 years before Mr. Rumsfeld had to study engineering at a university in the United States and to fight there in the Korean war and to fight later in Vietnam, Korea, and Vietnam.

Mr. Rumsfeld, who belongs to the Minnesota Engineering Society, studied at the University of Wisconsin and then at the University of Wisconsin.

It is not clear whether Mr. Rumsfeld is a member of the American Society of Professional Engineers.

the "human equation," the lack of the moral fiber that makes a person a person is what is called "humanity" said. But this was not the only thing, as he said in the end of his beautiful story:

"It is not for my wife's dignity and other things that I wish to be a good man," he said to his wife, "I wish to be a good man because I love you."

The man lived in Kansas, and he was a good man. He was a good man because he loved his wife. He was a good man because he loved his wife. He was a good man because he loved his wife.

HE WALKED TO TRAIN AT ORMOND, J. D. ROCKEFELLER LEARNS OF HIS WIFE'S DEATH

Partner of Oil Magnate Dead at Pocantico Hills, New York

He walked to the train on his way to Pocantico Hills, New York, in response to a telegram announcing his wife's serious illness. J. D. Rockefeller was handed a telegram today advising him of the death of his life partner. With bowed head he turned and handed the telegram to his son, John D. Rockefeller, and without display of emotion, he walked out through the gates of the Hotel Ormond and to the 10:14 train. No announcement had been made as to funeral arrangements.

NEW YORK, March 12.—After an illness of several months, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller is dead, at Pocantico Hills, N. Y. The death of the partner of the oil magnate, who died of a heart attack, her death was a great grief, her death was a great loss to the world. She was a woman of great ability, as is seen in her husband's statement her husband once said: "It has not been for my wife's sake that I have been so successful in business, but for my own sake. I would be a poor man."

Her maiden name was Laura Celestine Belmont. She was born in Akron, September 9, 1839. Her father was a successful dry goods merchant and at one time a member of the Ohio legislature.

She became acquainted with Mr. Rockefeller in the Cleveland grammar schools. They were married September 8, 1864, when both were about 25 years old. Mr. Rockefeller had already accumulated a respectable fortune through furnishing food supplies to the Union army and in his first oil concern. Known as Andrews, Clark & Co.

Before her marriage, she belonged to the Plymouth Congregational church, but later joined the Euclid avenue Baptist church, Cleveland.

It is said that Mrs. Rockefeller went 50 years without having a picture taken. In appearance she was quite short and plump, at any rate in later life. She reared four children: one died in infancy. The living children are John D. Jr., Dessel, Alva and Edith. The oldest daughter, Mrs. Chas. Strong, died in 1934; the second is Mrs. Parmelee Prentice, and the third, Mrs. Harold F. McCormick.

Mrs. Rockefeller did a great deal of unselfish work for temperance and for the poor and the ill.

FIREMEN FIGHT STUBBORN BLAZE

FIRE IN DR. C. C. BOHANNON'S RESIDENCE ON SOUTH PAL-METTO AVENUE KEEPS DE-PARTMENT BUSY.

One of the most stubborn fires with which the Daytona firemen have recently had to deal called the department to the residence of Dr. C. C. Bohannon on South Palmetto avenue at a few minutes after 8:00 o'clock this morning.

The fire originated in the wood work of the partition between the kitchen and the main part of the house on the ground floor and followed the pipes from the furnace to the attic of the building from which the smoke issued at an opening.

The furnace is located close to the partition wall the plastering on which became so heated from the furnace that the lath finally ignited and the flames then followed the passageway between the walls to the upper story.

The fire was so located that it was difficult to get at and it was some time before it was subdued. It was 10:00 o'clock when the fire truck returned to the engine house.

Three lines of hose were laid to the burning building, two from the hydrant a short distance south of the house and one from the hydrant at the corner of Palmetto and Magnolia avenues. Three holes were cut through the tile roof of the residence in order to get the water upon the flames.

The handsome residence, only completed and occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Bohannon the present season, received considerable damage not only from the fire and smoke but also from the quantity of water which it was necessary to use to subdue the flames. Practically all the furnishings were carried from the residence within a short time after the firemen arrived upon the scene, many volunteers taking a hand at the work. Some thoughtful ladies of the vicinity supplied the firemen with hot coffee, an attention that was heartily appreciated by them.

The damage to the building will probably amount to between two and three thousand dollars which is more than covered by insurance placed through the Conrad & Oates agency.

last time forward they were when not at work, and it was evident they were about to make a match.

But Pat had a mother to support and Kathleen, who was an orphan, was a mother to a little brother as a sister. So they couldn't hurry up they had laid up something. They both worked in the same factory, each lived in a house built on premises by the company to be used for homes for its employees. So they saw a great deal of each other.

They agreed that when their wedding occurred it should take place on the anniversary of their meeting, which was the evening before St. Patrick's day. When this first anniversary came around Pat had saved $400, and Kathleen had saved $300, and they decided that if they did as well the next year they would be married the event before St. Patrick's day.

On the first of the year they counted up their savings and interest and concluded that with their nest egg they might be married and have enough themselves and those dependent upon them. Kathleen bought what clothes she would need to last a year after marriage, and in due time the bar were published in church. Finding it inconvenient to be married on the day they had planned, March 16, they set their wedding day for the 12th. This was partly because Pat was of the committee of arrangements for the St. Patrick's day parade and was to lead his society on that occasion.

When the hour came for the wedding Pat did not appear. Kathleen dressed in her bridal apparel, waited for him with a wildly beating heart something had happened to him. She went to the door a dozen times look for him and finally stationed herself at a window where she could see the street on which the work cottages were built.

Presently she saw Owen MacTavish coming. MacTavish was known

BALL PLAYER PAINFULLY HURT IN PRACTICE GAME
Karst, one of the Brooklyn baseball club's this season's recruits, was badly injured Thursday morning while practicing on Ebbets field. In an attempt to reach second base he made a long slide, and in some manner wrenched one of his ankles, the ligaments of which were bruised and torn to an extent that will prevent the fielder from engaging in any more ball games for many months, it is believed. Mr. Karst was carried to Bohannon's hospital and given surgical attention.

PULLET SPORTS FOUR LEGS

This Variety of Fowl Would Furnish Plenty of Drumsticks for Big Family Dinner.

Bristol, Pa.—Probably the only chicken in all the world that can kick with both hind legs at the same time that it scratches its ear with the toes of one of its forefeet is a Plymouth Rock pullet owned by Joseph H. Vanzant, antiquarian and chicken champion of this borough. It is a genuine quadruped pullet, but with a disposition to stick to the traditions of its biped ancestors—except on occasions that demand the combined kick and ear-tickler.

Joe got this four-legged chicken from his nephew, Frank Vanzant of Walnut street, so that he can vouch for it as being to the manner born, and yet he did want the opinion of science as to its why and wherefore. So he took Miss Pullet to the Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, where there was a general agreement that it was older than any four-legged biped that had ever found its way to the operating table in that famous institution.

Four drumsticks on one bird beat anything they had ever heard of, even in the dietary of the boarding house.

CAT CHAPERON FOR CHICKS

Watches Over Them Daily With Mother's Care Till They Go to Roost.

Jefferson City, Mo.—A cat that cares for a brood of chickens is the property of Mrs. John P. Gordon, wife of the state auditor.

The cat attracted the attention of neighbors some time ago by its peculiar conduct. At first it was thought it was following the chickens around to kill one for a meal. This idea was soon dissipated when day after day the performance was repeated.

Then it was observed that the cat attached itself to a brood of late "fryers," now about half grown. It watches over this bunch of chickens with apparent motherly solicitude, follows

He Was a Very Mean Man

By OSCAR COX

I knew a man who was so mean that he married a woman he believed to be waiting for his best friend to marry her.

Ralph Newland and Herbert Tucker were the friends. Ralph was the selfish man. Herbert was so generous that he would have given away his head if it could have been of use to another. The secret of Ralph's power over women no one could explain except the girls he fooled, and it is a question if even they knew just how he did it. At any rate, he seemed to draw them as honey draws flies.

Tucker became engaged to Laura Perkins and introduced his friend Newland to her. Within a fortnight she had deserted Tucker for Newland. Tucker was philosophic about it. He said that if the girl preferred his friend to him his friend was welcome to her and she to him. After the damage had been done Newland sheered off and left Miss Perkins out in the cold. She tried to make it up with Tucker, but Tucker would have nothing to do with her. What made her mad was that Tucker seemed to be more friendly than before with the man who had deprived him of her. It was a direct reflection on her, indicating that Tucker felt grateful for having been saved from her.

After awhile Tucker made up to another girl, Helen Spangler. He introduced Newland to this one, too, telling him that if he could win her away from him he was welcome to do so. Tucker didn't want any girl for a wife who didn't love him better than the whole world. He asked his friend to put his second love to a similar test to the first. Newland accommodated him and captured the girl.

Tucker was so pleased at having been saved from a girl who could not have been in love with him—so he considered it—that he blew Newland off to a champagne dinner. Newland was surprised that his friend took all this supplanting with such equanimity, but could not detect the slightest wounding of his amour propre. "It's all right," said Tucker, "only a matter of taste. Some day I may find a girl who will truly love me; then no one can take her away from me. Meanwhile I appreciate these services you are doing me."

Newland dropped the last girl as he had dropped the first. Miss Spangler had more tact than the other. She didn't let on she was a bit displeased. She only said that there wasn't enough in both the men to make one real, noble, good man, and she was well rid of both of them. But she did not say this to either Tucker or Newland; she said it to a friend. As to the men, she told them she hoped they would both be her friends for ever and ever. This was after she had known of how Tucker stuck to Newland despite the way the former was taking the latter's girl away from him, and probably she wanted to show that a woman might have an equanimity of that kind in her as well as a man.

One day Newland received an anonymous note informing him that Tucker was courting a third girl and keeping it a secret from his friend. Newland showed the note to Tucker, who denied the impeachment. Newland only half believed him. Only persons of real innocence believe in the innocence of others, and Newland wasn't exactly an innocent man, as may appear from this story.

Married on St. Patrick's Day

By LOUISE B. CUMMINGS

There is no calling that would seem to cause so much suffering from sympathy as a person employed in a manufacture or on a railroad to break the news to an operative's family that he has been killed. Where there are a large number of employees there is usually such a person, for there is a certain percentage of workmen killed every year.

Kathleen O'Rourke and Patrick Co-glin met at a ball on the evening of St. Patrick's day, and Pat had asked her to dance with him many times.
Afterward he invited her to go to a moving picture show with him. From that time forward they were together when not at work, and it was evident
they were about to make a match.

But Pat had a mother to support,
and Kathleen, who was an orphan, was a mother to a little brother and a sister. So they couldn't marry until they had laid up something. They both worked in the same factory, and each lived in a house built on the premises by the company to be used for homes for its employees. So they saw a great deal of each other.

They agreed that when their wedding occurred it should take place on the anniversary of their meeting, which was the evening before St. Patrick's day.
When this first anniversary came around Pat had saved $400, and Kathleen had saved $300, and they decided that if they did as well the next year
they would be married the evening before St. Patrick's day.

On the first of the year they counted up their savings and interest and concluded that with their nest egg they might be married and have enough for themselves and those dependent upon them. Kathleen bought what clothes she would need to last a year after her marriage, and in due time the banns were published in church. Finding it inconvenient to be married on the very day they had planned, March 16, they set their wedding day for the 15th.
This was partly because Pat was one of the committee of arrangements for the St. Patrick's day parade and was to lead his society on that occasion.

When the hour came for the wedding Pat did not appear. Kathleen, dressed in her bridal apparel, waited for him with a wildly beating heart lest something had happened to him.
She went to the door a dozen times to look for him and finally stationed herself at a window where she could look up the street on which the workmen's cottages were built.

Presently she saw Owen MacTavish coming. MacTavish was known to every one connected with the plant as the company's bad news breaker, and many a woman's heart beat quick when she saw him approaching her house. Kathleen no sooner saw him coming than she fancied he would stop at her home to tell her that Pat had been killed. Before he reached the door she had fallen in a swoon.

Now, MacTavish did not stop at the O'Rourke cottage and was unconscious that he had frightened a girl there in a swoon. Kathleen was picked up by her friends, who had gathered to attend her to the church for the wedding. When she came to herself she looked about, dreading to see the bad news breaker, but he was not there.

"Is he gone?" she asked.
"Who gone?"
"MacTavish."
"He hasn't been here."
"And Pat isn't dead?"
"Nobody's heard of his being dead."
"Thanks be to God."

But Pat did not appear, and no one seemed to have any news of him.
Word was sent to the company's office to inquire for him, but no information was elicited.

Kathleen for awhile gave herself up to grief. She was uncertain whether Pat had met with foul play or whether he had deserted her. It would have been easier for the poor girl if she had known which of the two suppositions was correct, for it would have relieved her somewhat of suspense.

When St. Patrick's day in the morning came round Kathleen made up her mind that her lover had deserted her and with true Irish grit declared that there were as good fish in the sea as ever were caught. Then the children asked her to take them to see the parade, and she consented—not that she wished to do so, but that she did not care to disappoint them.

They were all standing on a stoop where they could see the parade over the heads of others, and the societies were moving past when who should appear marching at the head of one of them but Pat. He saw Kathleen, but she gave him a withering look and turned her back to him. Relinquishing the command to another, he left the ranks and joined her.

This was Pat's explanation of his conduct: An accident had occurred at a mine owned by the company some miles away, and a rescue party was leaving on a train. Pat was ordered aboard and, instead of being married, was engaged in digging out buried miners. He returned on the morning of St. Patrick's day only in time to take his place in the parade.

It required some time to placate the maiden, for she thought Pat might have at least sent her word as to what had happened, but the fact that he had been the means of saving the lives of a number of miners finally induced her to forgive him and go with him that afternoon to the church.

TESTIMONIAL TO CLARENDON MUSICIANS SATURDAY EVENING

A concert and dance has been arranged by guests of Hotel Clarendon and others of the colony to take place at the big resort on Saturday evening, March 13, which is to be a testimonial to Prof. Harry Tucker and members of his orchestra. This affair is given in recognition of the efforts of the musicians to please everyone, such as an unlimited number of encores in the ball room, etc. The concert will take place at 8:00 o'clock, followed by dancing. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of the following gentlemen: Paul McKeel, Stephen Bonsal, A. D. S. Johnson, H. H. Johnson, Mr. Ranslow and Mr. Allis.

Y.; Mrs. Henry Daingerfield, Washington, D. C.; Miss N. Waffles, Alexandria, Va.; Miss J. S. R. Thompson, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. William Beadenkoff, Wilmington, Ill.; Walter O. RUTH LAW MADE AIR FLIGHTS OVER EBBETS FIELD

Ruth Law made air flights over Ebbets field yesterday, accompanied by passengers, while the game between Stetson University and the Superbas was in progress. The little aviator drove her areoplane directly over the center of the park amid the cheers of the spectators, and returning banked the machine in plain view of the grandstand which was occupied by several hundred people.

Arrivals at the big hotel yesterday included many tourists who are northward bound. Among the number registered were J. J. Freund and Mrs. H. Freund, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones, New York city; Mrs. S. W. Fisher, Philadelphia, Pa.; W. C. Ward, Detroit, Mich.; H. Rand and chauffeur, New York; E. E. Hall and Frank Hall, Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. L. Ennis, New York.

THE LOT HAS AN OCEAN FRONTAGE OF 129 FEET, RUNNING BACK TO ATLANTIC AVENUE 250 FEET, WHERE IT HAS A REARAGE OF 20 FEET, AND IS LOCATED EAST OF BOSTWICK PARK.

THE HOUSE IS NEW, NEVER HAVING BEEN OCCUPIED, AND THE PRICE IS RIGHT, TOO. I WON'T TELL YOU HERE WHAT IT IS, BECAUSE I WANT YOU TO SEE IT BEFORE I TIP THAT OFF, BUT I WILL SAY, THAT IT IS CONSIDERABLY LESS THAN THE OWNER HAS BEEN ASKING FOR IT.

BESIDES THE NURSERY, THERE IS PLenty OF CLEAN SAND FOR THE CHILDREN TO PLAY IN, AND AN OCEAN OF WATER TO CLEAN UP AFTER IT.

THERE MUST BE SOMEONE IN THIS TOWN WHO WANTS JUST SUCH A PLACE, AND I WANT TO FIND THIS PERSON—LET ME SHOW IT TO YOU.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE OF HAVANA CARNIVAL

MARCUS H. ROGERS, FORMER WINTER RESIDENT OF DAY-TONA, WRITES FROM HAVANA
OF GALA TIME IN CUBAN CITY.

Marcus H. Rogers, former winter resident of this city, who has been spending the season in Havana, Cuba, in company with his wife, writes for change of his copy of the Gazette-
News from Havana to West Palm Beach, and says they will stop at several places along the East Coast, including a short stay at Daytona. Mr.
Rogers adds:

"This is the last Sunday observance of the carnival, and as I write, carts, sacks and boxes full of 'serpentina,' or colored paper tape, are appearing,
and the dealers are crying out 'pa-quete' at the tops of their voices.

"Soon there will be, as there has been on previous Sundays, at least a thousand automobiles, and more cabs and carriages, all loaded more than to capacity, with young people, including a great many very handsome young girls and ladies, and all engaged in throwing the 'serpentina' at each other as they pass.

"It is a scene of wild delight, and the enjoyment is universal. And it surpasses anything of the kind we have ever seen in the world—and we have seen some of it.

"To give some idea of the serpen-tinas thrown, on a former Sunday night we saw four big two-horse loads of the paper tape, that had been scraped together, and was being carted away, and this from our side of the street only.

"When the lamps on the autos and carriages are lighted, it is a beautiful sight, for the Prado, where our apartment is located, is a double street, with a park-space running its entire length in the middle, with two rows of myrtle trees, two broad concrete walks, flower beds, etc. And all the vehicles are obliged to go one way, up on our side of the street, and down on the other. It is a sight worth going a long way to see.

"Prizes are offered for the best decorated automobiles, and there will be many great efforts made to win the prizes."

Now, Jasper!

"There is one thing that has always refused to ooze through my noodle," remarked Jasper Knox, the sage of Piketown-on-the-Blink, "and that is this: If, as the newspapers would have us believe, all brides are beautiful, where in Sam Hill do all the homely married women come from?"—Judge.

Marvelous Activities.

A diner in a restaurant thought he would have a joke with the waiter, and asked him if he had ever seen a sausage roll. "Say," said the waiter, "I have not only seen a sausage roll,
but I have seen a biscuit box, a table spoon, a chimney sweep, a chain link,
a nose gay, a camera slide, a garden fence, a sword fish and a wall flower."

Without Exception.

Every normal girl passes through a period when she wishes her name were Celeste or something of the kind.
—Columbus (O.) Journal.

Scored for the Cat.

Billy has a kitten and his little neighbor has a poodle, and both little boys often quarrel over the relative merits of their pets. One morning the owner of the little poodle dog was getting the best of the argument, for his pet had a bath each day, he declared, and therefore was much cleaner than the kitten. But a bright idea saved the day for Billy. "Huh," he indignantly burst forth. "My kitten dry cleans himself four or five times a day."—Exchange.

Might Well Imitate Beaver.

You can pay no higher compliment to a man than to say that he "works like a beaver." The beaver is not only a hard worker but an intelligent and efficient one. If all human beings used their reasoning faculties to as good advantage as these four-footed creatures do their instinct or reason our civilization would undoubtedly have reached a far higher level than it yet has.

PHILADELPHIA ARTIST AT THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

J. L. Tadd, of Philadelphia, who is spending a few weeks in Daytona,
was a pleasant visitor at the assembly room of the high school, Thursday morning. Mr. Tadd is, in the highest sense, an artist, and among his pupils are some of the leading architects and builders of the "city of brotherly love." He is chief instructor in free-hand drawing in the Philadelphia schools, and illustrated his remarks with a number of excellent designs including representative work of the Grecian and German schools. He also gave brief talks in other rooms of the building.

Good Nature.

The world deals good-naturedly with good-natured people, says Thackeray, and I never knew a sulky misanthrop-ist who quarreled with it but it was he, and not it, that was in the wrong.

GREAT SPECTACULAR ECLIPSE BEGINS THIS EVE'NG 8:00 O'CLOCK

ELKS' MINSTRELS AT THEATER EXPECTED TO EXCEL ANY-THING LOCAL "BILLS" HAVE EVER BEFORE ATTEMPTED.

Tonight is the big night. The Elks minstrel show will go on at the New Daytona theater at 8:30 sharp, and from present indications an even bigger audience than greeted the first Elks show last December will be on hand. The show is going to be a better production than the one last fall, and that is saying a lot.

Alfred Donnelly will contribute the musical number in the olio, and Leon D. Brooks will hand you a big laugh. Mr. Brooks has a new offering in the olio that even makes the men in the show scream. Be prepared. A sketch will help fill up a delightful olio, and a novelty finish has been arranged that is sure to get a big "hand."

As for a first part, the one that will be given tonight will eclipse anything of a similar nature ever attempted here. The songs have been carefully chosen, and not a one of the ballads or blackface numbers will be handled but in the ablest manner. Otis Pellicier will again be in the interlocutor's chair, and will offer a song that seems to have been written just to fit his voice. Wellington B. Shaw has a new show that is the latest hit on Broadway. W. J. McDonald and Leon Brooks have mighty good ballads, while the blackface numbers will be sung in the same old time line manner by A. J. Malby, Harry Erickson and Fairfax Ludlow.

The show is for the benefit of the charity fund of the local lodge of Elks, and the early response has been very gratifying to those who have put forth their best efforts to give a good show, and to promote a most worthy cause. Every seat now remaining should be sold tonight, and it may be said without fear of contradiction that, aside from the benefit to the charity fund, all attending will be given an entertainment worth the price asked.

New Facts About Cancer.
A study of 1,000 cases of cancer of the stomach reveals the fact that this disease claims more men than women as its victims and that it occurs most frequently between the ages of forty and sixty years. Ulcer of the stomach, on the other hand, appears most frequently between the ages of twenty and forty years. In over 90 per cent of the cases of cancer heredity seemed to play no part whatever.

Special Ink Evolved.
As the carbon of ordinary printing inks does not bleach in using printed material for new paper, a French firm has patented a special ink. The black pigment is a compound from tanbark extracts acting on ferrous sulphate, and this is incorporated with resin, or mineral oil and resin, or boiled linseed oil. In repulping the paper the ink is bleached with an acid solution of a hypochloride, chlorine gas, or hydrochloric or oxalic acid, the pulp being made perfectly white.

Toll of Black Death.
Black Death became epidemic in Asia and Europe in 1425. In a few years this black death had carried off 23,000,000 persons in Europe and 85,000,000 in Asia. In streets and roadways the dead decayed where they happened to fall. During the 800 years up to this period the plague is estimated to have killed more than 900,000,000 human beings in Europe and Asia.

BRITISH VICTORY COST KAISER 5,000 SOLDIERS; NOTABLE FRENCH GAIN

PARIS, March 12.---The Germans lost 5,000 men when they were defeated by the British, Wednesday, at Neuve Chappelle. The British volunteers displayed great bravery in occupying the town. Three attacks by the enemy were repulsed last night.

The war office claims the French in the Champagne region are making noteworthy progress.

British warships are shelling the coast in the vicinity of Westende.

WARSHIPS OF ALLIES BOMBARDING SMYRNA

LONDON, March 12.---British demands for the surrender of Smyrna have been rejected, and warships have begun heavy bombardment of the city, whose inhabitants are in panic.

The operations of the allies' warships continue. It is said that forts Chanak and Kaleria, the strongest guarding the narrows, are badly damaged.

MRS. BARNES, MISS AMES, BLAIR, ROBINSON WINNERS

Sharply contested games of bridge and 500 were again among the pleasing social diversions at the Despland hotel, Thursday evening. The winner of the ladies' prize at bridge was Mrs. Barnes, of Providence, R. I., and the reward for the most skillful gentleman player was taken by James Robinson, of Montreal, Canada.

At 500, Miss Ames, of Adrian, Mich., made the highest score, receiving the ladies' prize, and H. C. Blair, of Haverstraw N. Y., walked away with the hostess's premium for the best showing made by a gentleman player.

China Big Peanut Exporter.
One Chinese province exports more than 150,000 tons of peanuts annually, all because an American missionary 20 years ago gave to a native convert a quart of seed.

E. E. Goodsell, of Hunter, Green county, N. Y., arrived in Daytona last night and will be guest for the month of March at the home of E. Osborn, at 510 Palmetto avenue. Mr. Goodsell is in the employ of the Ulster & Delaware railroad, being station agent at Hunter, and is now enjoying a well earned vacation.

Work for an Expert.
A Pennsylvania man is said to be trying to grow a watermelon with a handle by which it may easily be carried. Practical, perhaps, but altogether unnecessary! What the world needs is a watermelon with a cutaway bilge, allowing for it to be cut into reverse curves, so that it may be eaten in the good old-fashioned way without getting the ears full of water. —Providence Journal.

Piscatorial Note.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLERS WIN DOUBLE VICTORY

Y. M. C. A. TEAM OF ST. AUGUSTINE DEFEATS BOTH ARCADE AND NEW SMYRNA TEAMS IN DOUBLE HEADER AT ARCADE.

The bowling match at the Arcade Thursday evening of this week between a team from Y. M. C. A. of St. Augustine and the Arcade team resulted in a victory for the visiting team by a majority of three pins.

It was an off night for the local team, none of the members bowling up to their usual average and the team was further weakened by the fact that Manager L. H. Rowe was unable to take part as he was just recovering from an attack of la grippe.

The bowlers from St. Augustine who took part in the game Thursday evening were Messrs. Russell, Shaffer, Oliver, E. Blue and W. Blue and Oldfather, the last named playing one round in Oliver's place. The local bowlers included Messrs. Fik, Schrag, Ross, Lewis and Ernest Kreitzberg, Jr.

The match was a double header as it had been arranged for the victorious team to play the New Smyrna team and this game accordingly followed and was captured by the Y.

M. C. A. team with a majority of 147 pins.

Arrangements have been made for the Arcade team to go to St. Augustine next Thursday afternoon to play the Y. M. C. A. on its own grounds in the evening when they hope to get even with the St. Augustine team for the defeat of Thursday.

The first was a waltz by Strauss, and then they all came back to the platform. Mrs. Chapman said that she was very much pleased to see the orchestra in the orchestra room, and that they were all very much pleased to see the orchestra in the orchestra room, and that they were all very much pleased to see the orchestra in the orchestra room.

We Selected This Line
of DESKS After a Careful Comparison With All Others

After investigating other standard lines of desks we were convinced that GUNN SANITARY DESKS were more durable, more conveniently arranged and superior in many ways. These desks offer the very best value for the money. We believe an examination of this line at our store will convince you of their many fine points. They are business desks for business men.

FINE PROGRAM MUSIC AT PALMETTO CLUB

was a good chance for Red Cross work by doing knitting for the Belgians, so she obtained wool and needles and took them to the prisoners. At first they refused because they didn't know how, but later became interested, and now they are quite happy in doing for others. Mrs. Chapman asked permission to supply the men with stools to sit on as she found that they were sitting on the cold cement floors of the prison. Mrs. Chapman then read a couple of letters from the prisoners, showing their high regard for her, and that they have a heart and feeling. She has under her personal supervision 110 prisoners. Mrs. Chapman doesn't want freedom for her prisoners but justice and a fair start when their terms are over. She also visited the prisoners in their cages at New Smyrna and found that their condition needed attention also. She asked for books and magazines, even papers that are generally thrown away.

Mrs. Stanley next introduced Mrs. Grace Dillon Clarke, a director in the general federation of women's clubs, who is wintering at New Smyrna. This is her first season in the south, but she hopes that it will not be her last one. Mrs. Clarke said she was glad to meet the club that had just joined the national federation and hoped to see the president and officers and all the members possible at the next federation meeting at Portland, Ore., in June when the subject of "Woman and Peace" is to be discussed. Mrs. Clarke said also that it will be at the time of the "Feast of the Roses." She spoke of the three great platforms of the world—The Pulpit, the Press and the Petticoat. The first speaks "Truth," the second, "Knowledge," and the third "Spreads Cordiality." Then she spoke of the power of women's clubs and what they accomplished. Speaking of Mrs. Penny-packer as being one of the greatest of woman club workers, Miss Julia Lathrop, with her children's banner is another; Mrs. A. D. Bacon, of Indiana, with the model housing, which is making a great change in the living conditions of that state. By the way, there are 20,000 women club members in Indiana alone.

Mrs. Stanley then introduced Mrs.

Livingstone Jacques, as chairman of the afternoon's program.

Mrs. Jacques said that the committee was somewhat disappointed that Mrs. Swihart was unable to be present this afternoon, but they were equally glad to say that Mrs. Jean Neville consented to take her place.

Mrs. Jean Neville is contralto soloist at Dr. Parkhurst's Madison Avenue Presbyterian church, New York city, now soloist for the season at the Clarendon hotel and the Clarendon orchestra.

Songs by Mrs. Neville, with violin-cello and piano accompaniment:

- (a) Good-bye, Tostli.
- (b) I'm Wearing Awa', Arthur Foot.
- Cello Solo—The Rosary, by Mr. Krohe.

Orchestra—Selections from musical comedy, Chin Chin, Taunhauser, Evening Star and The Pilgrim Chorus.

Songs by Mrs. Neville:

- Aria, from Samson and Delilah.
- The Perfect Day, C. Saint Saens.
- Orchestra—Selection—Sweethearts, by Victor Herbert.

Selection on the Saxophone, The Last Rose of Summer.

Songs by Mrs. Neville:

- (a) A Dream, by Bartlett.
- (b) Slumber Boat, by Jessie Gaynor.
- Intermezzo Russe France—non a'ver Mattei.
- Chant—San Pavoles.

The program was closed with a selection by the string quartette.

A receiving line was then formed for the club members to meet the visiting ladies. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served while Saracina's band played in the lawn of the club house.

ADVISES THE COMMODORE TO TAKE TRIP ON THE RIVER

A visitor to the Daily News office, recently, jotted down the following comment about Esplanade, Burgoyne: "If Commodore Burgoyne will, on a calm evening, take a trip on the river opposite the city and see the effect of his lights and their reflection on the water he will not regret the beautiful gift to our city. It is a picture worth going to see."

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Brevet has become so popular at the Austin that the proprietors have added a second set. Patrick Head still holds the record, 21.

Mrs. W. Snyder, a noted tennis enthusiast, is now at the Austin, where she will spend the remainder of the season.

Mrs. W. Dineen and Miss Dineen, of Toronto, Can., arrived in Daytona, yesterday, and are registered at the Ridgewood, where they are expecting to spend several weeks. Mrs. Dineen's son, who visited here last winter, is now in the old country fighting for the British empire, and the cause of the allies.

MISS DARLING AND GREEN WON TENNIS SETS YESTERDAY

Three important matches were played in the Despland tennis tournament, yesterday, Miss Darling winning the ladies' singles cup from Miss Dean; Green disposing of Cunningham in the men's singles, and Miss Evans and Mr. Green winning from Miss Nelson and Mr. Davis in the first of the mixed doubles matches.

In the opening match of the morning, Miss Darling met Miss Dean in the finals for the handsome Despland cup, which went to the winner of the ladies' singles, and defeated her in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0 and 6-3. Miss Darling played true to the form she has displayed throughout the tournament, and had but little difficulty in defeating her plucky little antagonist.

Following the ladies' match, Green met Cunningham in the men's singles, in what proved to be the fastest match thus far in the tournament. In the opening set Green had the advantage and by working the back line was able to pull out the set by a 6-4 score. However, in the second set of the match, Cunningham by neat playing coupled with a little wildness on the part of the younger player, won 6-1. In the final set of the match, Cunningham worked the score up to 3-1, only to have the Daytona high school man take five out of the next six games. The victory of young Mr. Green was a popular one and Mr. Cunningham was the first to extend his congratulations. Set scores, 6-4, 1-6 and 6-4.

The first of the mixed doubles matches was played in the afternoon, when Miss Evans and Mr. Green took two sets and the match from Miss Nelson and Mr. Davis, by scores of 6-0 and 6-3. The winning pair were at no time pushed for the match, and had but little difficulty in winning from the opposing team. The best crowds of the tournament witnessed the Thursday matches, and in return for their interest were treated to some very good and exciting tennis. Interest in the tournament has been high this year, and with the concluding matches which will be played today and tomorrow, large galleries are expected to turn out.

SEABREEZE ELECTS CITIZENS' TICKET

ELECTION HELD YESTERDAY RE-SULTED IN LEONARD LOTT
BEING CHOSEN MAYOR—VOTE
WAS NOT HEAVY.

The annual election of town officers took place yesterday, March 11th, at the town hall. What is termed the "citizens' ticket" was carried throughout. Leonard W. Lott, who headed both tickets for mayor, was duly elected. For councilmen, S. V. Holland, W. P. Mathas and W. O. Upton, were elected; clerk and assessor, J. A. Burghman; tax collector, C. P. Land; treasurer, J. R. Tomlinson; marshal, E. D. Lowe. The highest number of votes cast for any one candidate was 78. The number of votes cast for the various candidates are as follows: Mayor, Leonard W. Lott, 78; councilmen, Chas. F. Burghman, 54, S. V. Holland, 52, W. P. Mathas, 51, W. O. Upton, 44, H. G. Wilson, 33, C. A. Kony, 25; clerk, J. A. Burghman, 78; assessor, C. P. Land, 76; treasurer, J. R. Tomlinson, 78; marshal, E. D. Lowe, 44, A. P. Sims, 36.

The town is fortunate in the selection of Leonard W. Lott as mayor. He is a successful business man and a person of large experience in municipal affairs in growing cities of the north.

Old Pension Plan.

They had a roundabout way of bestowing military pensions in the old days. Witness this official communication from the British war office in the reign of Queen Anne. Her majesty, it runs, has been pleased to grant Pitton Minshall, a child, a commission as ensign in consequence of the loss of his father, who died in the service. And Pitton was at the same time granted furlough until further order, his army pay being sent regularly to his mother.

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Saddler arrived from Brooklyn, N. Y., recently and will spend some time with Mrs. Saddler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson at their winter home on the Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. Saddler are on their annual winter vacation, and have many friends at the big hotels of Seabreeze and Daytona to welcome them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marone and daughter, Miss Gwendolin Brooks, of New York, reached Seabreeze last week, motoring down from Jacksonville in their car, after spending a few weeks in the city gateway of Florida, and are at home for the present in the Bernard cottage, Ocean boulevard. Mrs. Marone, whose pen name is Florence Brooks, is a newspaper, magazine and book writer. She is just now getting up material for an automobile story which will no doubt thrill with much of her experience in her long trip from New York to her ultimate destination, San Francisco. Mrs. Marone is a gentlewoman of unusually pleasing personality. Her husband and daughter are with her. They make up a very harmonious group. The daughter, Miss Gwendolin Brooks, is the counterpart of her mother, with the priceless advantage of youth, and Mr. Marone is the courteous, considerate gentleman, and good natured and jolly withal. They are very much in love with Seabreeze—a case of love at first sight, with a deepening tendency. They expected to stop at Daytona for a couple of days, perhaps, and then go on to Miami, and had their trunks shipped there. The trunks have been ordered reshipped to Seabreeze.

DAYTONA BEACH HOTEL CHANGES OWNERSHIP

W. F. AYERS, THE NEW PROPRIETOR, WILL TAKE POSSESSION MAY 1ST, BUT EXPECTS TO LEASE IT THIS SUMMER.

A deal was consummated yesterday whereby W. F. Ayers became owner of the Daytona Beach hotel, owned by L. Johnson, and now being conducted under the name of "The Kentucky," by Mesdames Burgin & Embry. Mr. Ayers will take possession of the property May 1, but expects to lease the hotel this summer, assuming personal control next winter.

It is the intention of the new proprietor to make many improvements to the present thoroughly up-to-date hotel, including a large addition of 25 rooms. Mr. Ayers is a man of wide experience in the hotel business, having formerly conducted the Oyama hotel and the White House at Daytona Beach, where he made a host of friends who will be glad to learn of his future plans.

The Daytona Beach hotel is situated on the ocean front just south of Seabreeze avenue, and has for several years been patronized by the best class of northern tourists. Its popularity under the present management is well known.

Australia's Animal Pests.
Australia is cursed with certain pests, such as rabbits, wild dog, kangaroo and blowfly. Large sums of money are spent in an endeavor to lessen the number of rabbits. It is estimated that in Victoria alone 150,000,000 were put to death in 1913. It is generally admitted that ten rabbits eat as much as one sheep, and many graziers have long since realized that they cannot profitably run sheep on properties infested with rabbits.

BRUTAL SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENTS

STETSON TEAM CAME OVER TO PLAY BALL WITH THE SUPER-BAS, BUT THE LATTER DID THE PLAYING.

The diamond warriors from Stetson university invaded our domain yesterday to engage in mortal combat with the clansmen from Brooklyn, with results decidedly unfavorable to the collegians.

The latter departed carrying with them a coating of kalsomine administered by the athletes from beyond the Brooklyn bridge, who scampered blithely around the sacks until a total of 16 tallies had been marked up on the score board. The Stetson aggregation managed to get one man as far as the keystone station, but that was all.

Taking advantage of the favorable weather conditions, a fair sized crowd witnessed the game, which, while devoid of thrilling situations, furnished no little amusement at the expense of the college boys.

Before the game was called, the Superbas were photographed en masse and a gigantic flag was hoisted in the flagpole in the extreme outfield.

The name "Ebbets Field" was inscribed on the banner in huge letters, and the motto, "Excelsior" and "God We Trust" also appeared.

During the course of the game, a law and a passenger flow over the ball park in her big Wright aeroplane.

Ebbets Field presented quite a metropolitan appearance, with its crowded grandstand, dugouts for the playing teams, bleachers, clubhouse, and score board, even down to the score cards, although there was no outside of pop bottles at the umpire's table, as sometimes indulged in by beacherites in the big towns.

Manager Robinson worked three of the young pitchers against the Stetson boys and although for the first two innings there were a few "hooks" sent out by the slabmen, toward the latter part of the game they put over the straight ball after another with no attempt to put anything on them. The game started the game for the Superbas and worked three innings, using three passes and fanning three batsmen. He nipped two base runners off first by snap throws to Jake Daubert and took things easy during his sojourn on the mound.

Smith, who succeeded him on the slab, fanned a couple of collegians and hit one of them in the ribs, doing no danger however. He forced several of them to pop up to the infielders and allowed one lone bingle off his delivery. Smith is a portside twirler and on one or two occasions showed his ability to steam them over when necessary.

Dell was the last occupant of the box and finished the game for the Superbas. One single was collected off his shoots and he also fanned two batsmen. There was no particular effort on the part of any of the three slab artists to loosen up overmuch at this early date in the training season.

McCarthy and Miller worked behind the bat, the latter poling out a double and a triple in two trips to the plate.

O'Mara performed at short, but only had three chances, two of which he handled cleanly, mussing up a bounder that came his way early in the game. Shultz and Wheat dented the rubber three times each and led the scoring records, although every man jack on the team made the circuit of the sacks at least once during the game. Cutshaw at second and Jake Daubert at first appear to be getting their hinges in working order once more, as their work was snappy and reliable. Out in right field, Zimmerman snared a couple of short flies, while Myers fozzled his only chance of the afternoon. There was mighty little work for the outer gardeners.

For the Stetson aggregation, Merritt pulled a hard catch in deep center, but this was about the only noteworthy episode contributed by the visitors. Gross started the box work, but retired in favor of Haskins in the fourth inning. Both were hit hard and frequently, as the score indicates beyond question.

Today the Superbas play the Clarendon Ormond team and tomorrow the Birmingham crew invades the local camp for a series of three games. It is expected that William Klem, the National league indicator holder, will officiate at these games; he was present by a large majority at the session yesterday afternoon, assisted by Jack Coombs, well known to fans throughout the country.

The line-up and score by innings of yesterday's argument follows:
Brooklyn—O'Mara, ss; Daubert, 1b; Shultz, 3b; Wheat, lf; Cutshaw, 2b; Myers, cf; Zimmerman, rf; McCarthy and Miller, c; Codora, Smith and Dell, p.

Stetson University—Bradley, 3b; Gardner, 2b; Kanner, ss; Louney, c; Merritt, lf and cf; Hogden, 1b; Hon, cf; Beaulican, rf; Gross and Haskins, p.

BAD CITRUS COUNTY NEGRO ARRESTED BY OFFICER TOM MILTON

Friday morning Officer T. O. Milton placed under arrest John Utsey, colored, who was locked up in the city jail pending his removal to the county prison at Deland, from which place deputy sheriffs are expected this afternoon. Utsey was arrested on a warrant from the office of Sheriff Geo. R. Carter, of Citrus county, charging assault with intent to commit murder.

Utsey had been here several months, but the warrant, which bore the date of October, 1914, was not received until two or three days ago. Milton began a quite search for the negro and soon located him at Boswick Park, where he was employed as a laborer. He had been living here under an assumed name, but when the officer addressed him as John Utsey, he answered "present," and admitted that he was the man wanted.

The Citrus county sheriff will go from Inverness, the county seat, to Deland, later, to get his prisoner.

ILLINOIS YOUNG LADY

MARRIES C. J. TAYLOR

In the parlors of the Bingham & Miley company, Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Maude R. Holper and Clarence G. Taylor were united in the bonds of holy wedlock. Notary Public A. K. Brokaw officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of mutual friends of the newly-weds.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside in Daytona. They are guests just now at the Cleveland hotel, but it is their intention to later take housekeeping apartments elsewhere in the city.

The bride's home was in Divernon, Ill., from which place she came earlier in the week, it having been previously agreed that the wedding should take place here. The groom also formerly resided at Divernon, but for the past four years had lived in Florida, most of the time at Jacksonville and in this city, where he has many warm friends.

For several months he has been employed as one of the artists at Hooper's tonorial establishment on Beach street. The wedding had been pending since last summer, when Mr. Taylor visited his old home and gained the young lady's consent.
